Homair Vacances: a leading specialist in mobile home holidays

The Group is the French leader of the mobile home holiday market in which it operates exclusively. For the 2007-2008 season the Group offers holidays in c.5 000 mobile-homes spread across 103 selected or company-operated camp-sites. In 2006-2007, the Group reported revenue of €25.9 million, achieving a 24% growth over the past year.

A total of over 90% of these stays are sold directly to customers via the Internet, catalogues and the telephone. Internet sales accounted for c.60% of direct bookings in 2006-2007, compared to around 34% in 2003-2004.

The Company has leveraged its French customer base to expand its holiday parks offer in major Southern European countries (Spain, Italy, Portugal and Croatia), where it generated c.20% of its revenue in 2006-2007. It also sells holidays in Great Britain, Belgium, the Netherlands, Germany, Italy, Denmark and Spain.
